FROM PHANOR.
The packet ship Howard, at New York, from Havre, furnishes Paris papers to the 15th August inclusive. The following are extracts from the New York papers.

On the affairs of Greece, which recent accounts have rendered so interesting, these papers contain nothing in addition to what was received by the last arrival from Liverpool. The reports of the capture of Ibrahim Pacha by Colocotroni continued unqualified, and were generally treated.

What, indeed, rendered them extremely probable, was the circumstance of the Turkish general having extended his line of operations to such a degree as to weaken his disposable force, which had been open to be intercepted and surrounded by the Greek army. Instead of concentrating his army, and co-operating with the Turkish naval commander, he is stated to have entirely abandoned the sea coast, and to have separated his army into a number of divisions and directed them to march by different routes into the interior.

Of this political proceeding the Greek general is to have been fully aware, and to have taken proper advantage, by throwing himself across the enemy's line of operations, and thus compelled him to advance upon Napali, where, with Greek forces before him, and those of Colocotroni in his rear, his destruction was inevitable. We trust the next arrival will bring a full confirmation of the account of the capture of the Egyptian commander, and the whole of his force.

From the Paris Journal du Commerce of Aug. 15.

The accounts from Constantinople of the 20th July, and from Corfu of the 18th of the same month, confirm the defeat of Ibrahim Pacha in his various attacks on the port at the Mills near Napoli, but do not speak of his captivity. It appears that he has only retired to Tripolitza, after burning Argos.

The same accounts mention the landing at Navarino of Hussein, at the head of 3 or 4000 Egyptians, who immediately marched upon Tripolitza. The Captain Pacha appeared on the 7th July before Missolonghi, SPAIN.

From this devoted country we have the most pitiable accounts of civil dissension, and the complicated evils arising from the misgovernment of its imbecile monarch.

At Malaga, the militia and royal volunteers had several conflicts, in which many were killed and wounded, and such was the extent of these broils and the general dissatisfaction, that a Junta of public safety has been appointed at Madrid, and it was contemplated to re-establish the inquisition, which had, in fact, been practically renewed by the bishops of Terragona and Orléans of their own accord, having established that detestable tribunal in their dioceses.

A number of officers of General Laforette, have subscribed for the purpose of offering a gold medal of the value of 1000 fr. for the best piece of verse upon the voyage of that officer to America, his stay there and his return home.

We are happy to learn that the disturbances at Houle and other places in the vicinity of Rouen have ceased, and the workmen have returned to their duty. The ringleaders in general are in custody.

The cities of Antwerp and Liege were visited by a very violent storm on the 2d and 10th of August.

According to the latest accounts from Seville it appears that only three persons perished at the late fire. A girl was found alive in the cellar upon which a building fell at the moment when she had carried to it some article of furniture. There, for 5 days, in complete darkness and in expectation of cruel death, she had lived upon some bread which fortunately was kept in the cellar.

During the night about 1,500 of the destute inhabitants encamped upon the rocks of the Hermitage of St. Roch, under fort Beña.
It is not without pleasure that we find the sufferers are multiplying in all parts of the country for the relief of these distressed families.

The Dutchess and Mademoiselle of Orleans have each given the sum of 1000 fr. for the relief of the sufferers by the fire at Salamanca, in addition to the donations of the other members of the royal family.

The Duke of Wellington, after inspecting the fortifications of Namur, proceeded to Liege, from whence he is expected to depart on the 10th inst for Cologne.

Last evening his Grace and suite arrived at Paris, and alighted at the hotel Meurice.

Madrid, Aug. 4.—(Private Correspondence.) M. Zezarioz Equiz, Commandant in Galicia, has sent an officer here to notify the government that there are numerous cruisers under the Colombian flag, carrying on a contraband trade in salt, which they dispose of in the small villages on the coast for half the established price. He also reports, that owing to the smallness of the force under his command, he can only make a show of a cordon, and moreover, that the contrabandists seduced the troops by gifts of tobacco and brandy; the soldiers themselves used seditious language, and things were in such a state that they could not be answered for the consequences.

The troops intended for the expedition to Havana are constantly confined to the barracks of Ferrol, their discontent increasing daily. Letters state that the officers do not conceal their fears of embarking with them, as they are apprehensive of a mutiny on the passage.

Considerable sensation exists in the mility, in consequence of the report made by the Council of Castile on the re-establishment of the Inquisition. This report confirms the duties of this tribunal to religious matters alone, and in no manner to political matters, and the judges shall be made public, and the sentences shall be known to the people.

The Priest Oliva has been entrusted with the report to carry to the King for royal assent.
Mr. Roach has addressed a very energetic remonstrance to the King.

ANNAPOLIS:
THURSDAY, SEPT. 29, 1825.

A list of the names of the members of the Senate of this State from the year 1776 to 1795 inclusive, has been handed us for publication. Its length has compelled us to suspend its insertion until next week.

JEWISH GOVERNMENT REVIVED.
In this day's paper we give an account of the laying of the first stone of "Arrarat," on Grand Island, and the proclamation of Mr. Noah, Governor and Judge of Israel. We were at first disposed to view the whole as a hoax, but as the Jewish Advocate has noticed both the laying of the stone and the proclamation, without calling their authenticity in question, we must conclude them to be genuine.

The editor of the New-York Statesman, some remarks noticing Mr. Noah's proclamation as Governor says—"Well, he will make a mild and benevolent Judge and Governor, and we dare say will away the discussion of his empire with a wisdom and virtue that will put the Holy Alliance to the test."

COMPLIMENTARY DINNERS.
A number of the citizens of Philadelphia endeavored to evince their attachment to Com.
Porter, and to show their gratification in his late honorable acquittal, held a meeting last week and determined on giving him a complimentary dinner. The Commissioner accepted their invitation, and is to eat with them this day.

GEN. JACKSON.
A dinner in compliment to the General, was given by the citizens of Florence, in America, on the 30th ult.

GEN. GAINES.
At a Dinner given in compliment to Monsignor General Gaines on the 17th ult. at Ma-sachusetts, Georgia, the following toasts were given:

By John W. Barney, President of the Society.—The everlasting union of these States.
To which end we may encourage education, venerate religion and love one another.

By Colonel James Smith, Vice-President.
General Andrew Jackson and Edward Pendleton Gaines, Military Chief-fains.—While such men exist, the United States of America stand firm and undivided.

THE GEORGIA COMMISSIONERS.
Major T. P. Andrews, late special agent of the U. S. government in Georgia, has published a refutation of the calumnies cast upon him by the Georgia Commissioners in their reports. In his refutation he notices the character of each of the Commissioners, beginning with Colonel Seaborn Jones, who, he says, "Gave a certificate of dishonesty to a man who had been made a general by the Georgia Legislature." (Unfortunately for the veracity of the Colonel) never to have been made. He is a general certificate man.

The next Commissioner noticed is Col.
W. Williamson, who, Major Andrews says, "Stands convicted, by the testimony of numerous witnesses, of being an active instrument in the hands of the commissioners who made the late treaty, in attempting to induce various persons to betray their duty and honor."

"Col. W. H. Torrence," says Major Andrews, "has been convicted within about two years, by a sentence of the court of the place in which he resides (Milledgeville) of a disgraceful slander, and a considerable sum imposed by the sentence of the court as penalty."

"Col. Warren Jourdan. This gentleman," says Major Andrews, "has been accused before the public of having screened a notorious smuggler, who had been engaged during the late war in smuggling a large quantity of blankets into Georgia from Amelia Island. The accusation which was made by his neighbor, a man of high standing in society, has never been repelled; and was so sustained by his fellow-citizens as to cause him to be rejected as a candidate for legislature."

Captains Bowen and Thomas (says Major Andrews) are already known to the public.
By reference to the report of Mr. Wirgin (made in 1822), to the President of the United States, in the case of General D. B.
Mitchell, the former Indian Agent for the Creek nation, (who was convicted of having smuggled between one and two hundred African negroes into the Indian nation from Amelia Island,) it will be seen, that these two gentlemen, who were his deputies in office, were the instruments of Gen. Mitchell in introducing these negroes into the nation. It will there be seen, that Captains Bowen and Thomas were the persons by whom the negroes were obtained and smuggled into the Indian nation. Gen. Mitchell was dismissed, on the report, from office; but Captains Bowen and Thomas compelled to leave the nation.

COM. PORTER.
We are informed and have doubt of the fact, that Com. David Porter has lately been appointed to enter the service of the Republic of Mexico, as commander in Chief of its naval forces. The Executive of that Republic decided on the 4th of July last, to renew the appointment to Com. Porter on the 30th of July the proposition was approved by the Council, and the offer has recently been made to him. We understand also, that a similar overture has been made to Com. Porter on the part of the Government of Colombia.

We have not understood what Com. Porter's determination is in relation to either of these offers.

On the 18th ult. a shoemaker of good character, was brought before the magistrate at Guildhall, London, to be examined on a charge of theft. Just at the moment that his case was about to be called, his wife, a respectable young woman in her appearance, &c. in the last stage of pregnancy, who had been waiting in dereliction during the whole morning, fell back from her seat and expired without groan or struggle. The excitement of the husband, and the presence of some female relations who were present, produced a painful scene. The prosecution was abandoned, and money bestowed when it was found that the miserable man had a family of six small children, whose distress had probably driven him to the act of which he was accused.

PROCLAMATION TO THE JEWS.

Whereas it has pleased the Almighty God to manifest to his chosen people the Jews, that the time has come when, in fulfilment of the promises made to the race of Jacob, &c. as a reward for their piety, constancy and triumphant fidelity they are now to be gathered from the four quarters of the globe, and to resume their rank and character as among the governments of the earth. And whereas, the peace which now prevails among the civilized nations, the progress of learning throughout the world, and the general spirit of liberality and toleration which exists together with other changes, favorable to light and liberty, mark, in an especial manner, the approach of that time when "peace on earth and good will to man" are to prevail with a benign and extended influence, and the ancient people of God, the first to proclaim his unity and omnipotence, are to be restored to their inheritance, and enjoy the rights of sovereign and independent people. Therefore, I MORDECAI MANUEL NOAH, citizen of the United States of America, late Consul of the said states for the city and Kingdom of Tunis, High Sheriff of New-York, Governor and Judge of Israel, have issued this my proclamation, announcing to the Jews throughout the world, that an asylum is prepared and hereby offered to them, where they can enjoy that peace, comfort and happiness, which has been denied them, through the intolerance and misgovernment of former ages; an asylum in a free and powerful country, where ample protection is secured to their persons, their property and their religious rights; an asylum in a country remarkable for its vast resources, the richness of its soil, and the salubrity of its climate; where industry is encouraged, education promoted, and good faith rewarded; "a land of milk and honey," where Israel may repose in peace, under "this vine and fig tree," and where our people may so familiarize themselves with the science of government, and the lights of learning and civilization, as may qualify them for that great and final restoration to their ancient heritage, which the times so powerfully indicate.

The asylum referred to is in the state of New-York, the greatest state in the American confederacy. New-York contains 45,214 square miles, divided into fifty-five counties, and having 687 post towns and cities, containing one million five hundred thousand inhabitants, together with six million acres of land, improvements in agriculture and manufactures, in trade and commerce, which include a valuation of three hundred millions of dollars of taxable property. One hundred and fifty thousand militia, armed & equipped, a constitution founded upon an equality of rights; having no test oaths, and recognizing no religious distinctions, and seven thousand free schools and colleges, affording the blessings of education to four hundred thousand children of every religious denomination. Such is the great and increasing state to which the emigration of the Jews is directed.

The desired spot in the state of New-York, to which I hereby invite my beloved people throughout the world, in common with those of every religious denomination, is called Grand Island, and on which I shall lay the foundation of a City of Refuge, to be called ARRARAT.

Grand Island in the Niagara river, is bounded by Ontario on the north, and Erie on the south, and within a few miles of each of those great commercial lakes. The island is nearly twelve miles in length, and varying from three to seven miles in breadth, and contains upwards of seventeen thousand acres of remarkably rich and fertile land.
Lake Erie is about 270 miles in length, and borders on the state of New-York, Pennsylvania and Ohio; and westwardly by the possessions of our friends and neighbors, the British subjects of Upper Canada. This splendid lake unites itself by means of navigable rivers, with Lakes St. Clair, Huron, Michigan and Superior, embracing a lake shore of nearly 3000 miles; and by short canals, those vast sheets of water will be connected with the Illinois and Mississippi rivers, thereby establishing a great and lucrable internal trade to New-England and the Gulf of Mexico. Lake Ontario to the north, is 190 miles in length, and empties into the St. Lawrence; which passing through the Province of Lower Canada carries the commerce of Quebec and Montreal to the Atlantic ocean.

Thus fortified to the right and left by the extensive commercial resources of the great lakes, and their tributary streams—within four miles of the sublime Falls of Niagara, affording the greatest water power in the world for manufacturing purposes—directly opposite the mouth of the great canal of 350 miles inland navigation, to the Hudson river and city of New-York, having the fur-trade of Upper Canada to the west, and also of the great territories towards the Rocky Mountains and the Pacific Ocean; likewise the trade of the western states of America.
Grand Island may be considered as surrounded by every commercial, manufacturing and agricultural advantage, and from its location is pre-eminently calculated to become in time the greatest trading and commercial depot in the new and better world. To men of worth and industry it has every substantial attraction, the capital will be enabled to employ his resolute cannot fail to reap profit, and of enterprise in a great and growing republic, but to the industrious mechanic, manufacturer, and agriculturist, it holds forth great and improving advantages.

Deprived as our people have been for centuries of a right in the soil, they will learn with peculiar satisfaction, that here they can till the land, reap the harvest, and raise the flocks which are unquestionably their own, and in the full and unobscured enjoyment of their religious rights, and of every civil immunity, together with peace and plenty, they can lift up their voice in gratitude to him, who sustained our fathers in the wilderness, and brought us in triumph out of the land of Egypt, who has promised to us the safe keeping of our persons, who proclaimed us his people, and who has ever walked before us "like a cloud by day, and a pillar of fire by night."

In his name do I revive anew and re-establish the government of the Jewish nation, under the auspices and protection of the constitution and laws of the United States of America. Confirming and perpetuating all our rights and privileges, our name, our rank, and our power; among the nations of the earth as they existed and were recognised by the government of the Judges. And I hereby enjoin it upon all our pious and venerable rabbis, our prelates, and brethren synagogues, chiefs of colleges, and brethren in authority throughout the world, to circulate and make known this my proclamation, and so give it full publicity, credence, and effect.

It is my will that a census of the Jews throughout the world be taken, and returns of persons, together with their age and occupation, be registered in the archives of the synagogues where they are accustomed to worship, designating such in particular, who have been and are distinguished in the useful arts, in science, or in knowledge.

Those of our people who from age, local attachment, or from any other cause prefer remaining in the several parts of the world which they now respectively inhabit, and who are treated with liberality by the public authorities, are permitted to do so, and are especially recommended to be faithful to the governments which protect them. It is however, expected, that they will aid and encourage the emigration of the young and enterprising, and endeavor to send a national strength and character, by their industry, honour and patriotism.

Those Jews who are in the military employment of the different sovereigns of Europe are enjoined to keep their ranks until further orders, and conduct themselves with bravery and fidelity.

I command that a strict neutrality be observed in the pending war between the Greeks and the Turks, and that no considerations of safety towards a numerous population of Jews now under the oppressive dominion of the Ottoman Porte.

The annual gifts which for many centuries have been afforded to our pious brethren in our Holy City of Jerusalem, to which may God speedily restore us, are to continue with unabated liberality; our seminaries of learning and institutions of charity in every part of the world, are to be increased, in order that wisdom and virtue may permanently prevail among the chosen people.

I abolish forever Polygamy among the Jews, without religious wars, still exists in Asia and Africa. I prohibit marriages or giving Kedeemim without both parties are of a suitable age and can read and write the language of the country which they respectively inhabit, and which I trust will ensure to their offspring, the best of education and probably the lights of science.

Prayer shall forever be said in the Hebrew language, but it is recommended that occasional discourses on the principles of the Jewish faith, and the doctrines of morality generally be delivered in the language of the country, together with such reforms which without departing from the ancient faith may add greater solemnity to our worship.

The Canaan and Samaritan Jews, together with the black Jews of India and Africa, and likewise those in Cochinchina, and the sect on the coast of Malabar, are entitled to an equality of rights and religious privileges, as are all who may partake of the great covenant, and obey and respect the Mosical Laws.

The Indians of the American Continent in their admitted Asiatic origin, in their worship of one God, in their diet, and in language, in their sacrifices, marriages, funerals, burials, fastings, purifications, punishments, cities of refuge, divisions of tribes, in their High Priest, and in their wars and in their victories being in all probability the descendants of the lost tribes of Israel, which were carried captive by the King of Assyria, measures will be adopted to make them sensible of their origin, to cultivate their minds, soften their condition and finally re-unite them with their brethren the chosen people.

A capitulation tax of three shekels in silver per annum, or one Spanish dollar, is hereby levied upon each Jew, for the support of the world, to be collected by the Treasurers of the different congregations, for the purpose of defraying the various expenses of re-organising the government, of aiding emigration, in the purchase of agricultural instruments, providing for their immediate wants and comforts, and assisting their families in making their first settlements, together with such free-will offerings as may be generously made in the furtherance of the laudable objects connected with the restoration of the people and the glory of the Jewish nation.—A Judge of Israel shall be chosen once in 4 years, by the Consistory at Paris, at which time Proxies from every congregation shall be received.

I do hereby name as commissioners, the most learned and pious Abraham de Colom-ny, Knight of the Iron Crown of Lombardy, Grand Rabbi of the Jews and President of the Consistory of Paris, likewise the Grand Rabbi Andrade of Bordeaux, and also our estimable Grand Rabbi of the German and Portuguese Jews, in London Rabbis Perschell and Mendoza, together with the honorable Aaron Nunez Cardozo of Gibraltar, Abraham Busse, Esq. of Leghorn, Benjamin Grads of Bordeaux, Dr. E. Ganes and Professor Zuntz of Berlin, and Dr. Leo Wolff of Hamburg, to aid and assist in carrying into effect the provision of this my proclamation, with powers to appoint the necessary agents, in the several parts of the world, and to establish emigrating societies, in order that the Jews may be concentrated and capacitated to act as a distinct body, having at the head of each kingdom or republic such presiding officers as I shall upon their recommendation appoint. Instructions to these my commissioners shall be forthwith transmitted.
And a more enlarged and general view of the plan, motives and objects will be detailed in the address to the nation. The Consistory of Paris is hereby authorized and empowered to name three discreet persons of competent abilities to visit the United States and make such report to the nation as the actual condition of this country and its state shall warrant.

I do appoint Noshodes Adar, Feb. 7, 1826, to be observed with suitable demonstrations as a day of Thanksgiving to the Lord of Israel, for the manifold blessings and the signal protection which he has designed to extend to his people, and in order that on that occasion our prayers may be offered for the continuance of his divine mercy, and the fulfillment of all the promises and pledges made to the race of Jacob.

I recommend peace and union among us, charity and good will to all, toleration and liberality to our brethren of every religious denomination, enjoined by the mild and just precepts of our holy religion. Honour and good faith in the fulfilment of all our contracts, together with temperance, economy and industry in our habits.

I entreat you to be remembered in your prayers, and lastly and most earnestly, I do pray join you to "keep the charge of the Lord thy God, to walk in his ways, to keep his statutes and his commandments and his judgments, and his testimonies, as it is written, in the laws of Moses, that thou mayest prosper in all thou doest, and withersoever thou turnest thyself."

Given at Buffalo, in the State of New York, this second day of May, in the year of the world, 5786, corresponding with the 22 teenth day of September, 1825, and in the fiftieth year of American Independence.

By the Judge,
A. B. SEIXAS, Sec'y Pro Tem.

LOCAL POLICE OF LONDON.
In the city of London there are eight Police Offices, independent of Guildhall and the Mansion House. At the former, the Aldermen preside in rotation; at the latter, the Lord Mayor. There are two Marshalls, who receive £900 sterling a year; six mar-shalmen, at £130 each; and 1099 watchmen and constables, who receive £30,000 a year.
But in the whole city, including parishes in Westminster, Middlesex, and Surrey, there are 4044 persons in the local police.

HYMENEAL.
Married, on Tuesday the 20th instant, in Montgomery county, by the Rev. Mr. Mc-gruder, Mr. Walter Cross, of this city, to Miss Sarah Holland, of the former place.

OBITUARY.
COMMUNICATED.
Departed this life on Saturday morning the 17th instant, in the 66th year of her age, Mrs. Maria Moss, consort of Mr. James Moss, son of Hackett's Point, Anne-Arundel county. The illness which terminated the earthly career of this excellent woman was long and painful, yet she endured it with the patience and fortitude of a Christian, and willingly resigned herself to the will of her wise creator, who is ready and able to save to the uttermost every humble and faithful believer. Conscious that her life had been well spent, and comforted by the pious conversations of the Rev. Henry Hammond, who visited her during her confinement to a sick bed, she was unappalled by the approaches of death, and declared that "all things were right." At the moment when her spirit was about to forsake its earthly abode, addressing herself to a daughter, who hung weeping over her, she said, "I know I am dying, do not make a noise, let my soul depart in peace, for all things are well." A few minutes afterwards she yielded her spirit to the keeping of her God and Saviour, Jesus Christ.

On Sunday morning following at 10 oclock, her mortal remains were committed to the grave in the presence of a mourning husband and family, and many friends and neighbors.

On the 19th inst. at Blooming-dale, Mr. WILLIAM SCHNEIDER, aged 54 years. This gentleman was the father of the late much admired and popular preacher, the Rev. John Summerfield.—Private paper.

NOTICE.
Whereas Elizabeth Purdy, now Elizabeth Wheat, has absconded from my bed and board, I therefore fore-warn all persons from dealing with her, or crediting her; as I am determined not to pay any debts of her contracting after this date. Given under my hand this 11th of September, 1825. Jesse Wheat.

Anne-Arundel County, to wit: I hereby certify, that Caleb Hobbs brought before me, the subscriber, a justice of the peace for the county aforesaid, as a stray trespassing on his enclosure, a bay gelding, about eight years old, fourteen and half hands high, long flaming foretop, mane and tail, blaze face, two hind feet white, three old shoes, and trots, racks and gallops, and is very stiff in his joints as though he had been rode very hard, and appears to have
